1. OBJECTIVE OF THE INTERIM POLICY

- 1.1 The Code shall be governing and regulating all the activities conducted by the Advanced Criminal Law Studies Committee (hereinafter referred to as ACLSC) for the academic year 2021-2022 and shall be binding in nature.
- 1.2 All the rules and regulations mentioned in the Code shall be in compliance with the Rules and Regulations of School of Law, Christ (Deemed to be University) and where there is a question of precedence, the Rules of the University shall undisputedly prevail.
- 1.3 In order to ensure the achievement of the objectives of the committee for the academic year 2021-2022, the Code shall lay down the principles and rules that shall be followed for the efficient working of the committee.
- 1.4 The Code shall give an insight to the students of SLCU into the working and management of the Committee and establish a benchmark for all kinds of activities, seminars and visits organized by the committee in the academic year 2021-2022.

2. INTERIM REPRESENTATION AT EXTERNAL TRIAL ADVOCACY COMPETITION POLICY

Procedure for participation in external competitions

- 2.1 The teams representing SLCU at external Trial Advocacy Competitions shall be solely on the basis of the ranks secured in the Internal Trial Ranking rounds for the academic year 2021-2022.
- 2.2 The Rank so obtained shall be used to represent SLCU at only one external Trial Advocacy Competition. The ranks secured in the above-mentioned ranking round shall be valid and may be used till the announcement of the ranks of the ranking rounds of the academic year 2022-23.
- 2.3 The external Trial Advocacy Competition shall be allotted to the teams who applied to the Call for Application for the respective external competition. The team whose rank stands the highest amongst the applicants within the specified time as mentioned in the Call for Applications shall be allotted the same.
- 2.4 Upon the allotment of an external Trial Advocacy Competition, each member of the team must submit the required forms via email to the ACLSC mail ID (criminallaw.committee@law.christuniversity.in) and the attendance claims for the dates of the external Trial Advocacy Competition as well as the requisite days of travel (if applicable) shall be entertained only on the basis of submission of these documents:
- (a) A copy of the Allotment Mail
 - (b) A permission letter to participate in the concerned competition that shall be addressed to the Dean
 - (c) The duly filled 'registration form' of the external Trial Advocacy Competition
 - (d) The duly filled undertaking forms of every participant, Guardian, Attendance & CIA/ Exam which can be accessed from the ACLSC Blog or from the Word Document sent along with this Code. The Word Document containing the forms must be downloaded, filled in and sent to the Committee Mail after renaming the file with the Team's ITA Rank and the Trial competition allotted to the team
 - (e) NOC from Teammate (Refer to clauses 2.8 and 2.9)
 - (f) Undertaking form by the Trial Team
 - (g) Attendance printout of every participant as updated on the Student Login
 - (h) Checklist containing a summary of the above-stated documents

Note: The Photographs needed in the registration form should be strictly in SLCU Uniform only.

- 2.5 A team shall be allowed to take part in an allotted external Trial Advocacy Competition only if all the members of the team have an attendance of a minimum of 85% (with Co-Curricular & Medical Claims) at the time of submission of documents of the external Trial competition.
- 2.6 In the event that a member/members of a team has/have attendance below 85% at the time of submission of documents of the external Trial competition, a letter of permission must be obtained from the Dean citing the reasons for the same. On submission of such a letter of permission, the team may be allowed to take part in that particular competition.
- 2.7 In the event that one or more members of a team cannot take part in an external Trial Advocacy Competition after an allotment has been made, the same must be notified to the ACLSC within 24 hours of the allotment. No team can change its composition without the prior approval of the Faculty Coordinators of ACLSC.
- 2.8 In case it is inevitable, a new member may be suggested by the team and may be allowed to take part only on the approval of the Faculty Co-ordinators of ACLSC and after having obtained a No Objection Certificate (NOC) from the member who is unable to take part from the team in consideration as well as the team of which the new member is a part. However, such other member chosen will be deemed to have exhausted the rank of the entire team. The question of inevitability will be decided on a case-to-case basis by the Faculty coordinator/s. It is mandatory for the new member to have participated in the respective ranking rounds in order to represent SLCU in an external Trial Advocacy Competition.
- 2.9 If any competition requires a four-member team, and the team allotted has only three members, then the team may select any person of their choice who has participated in the respective Internal Trial Ranking Rounds. In case any competition requires a two-member team, the third member of the team based on the team's mutual consensus should provide a 'No Objection Certificate' (NOC) with respect to the participation of the other two members of the team in the same. In both the aforementioned scenarios the rank of the member(s) not participating shall be deemed to have been exhausted.
- 2.10 In case of a tie between two or more teams' ranks in the Internal Trial Advocacy Ranking Rounds, the tiebreaker will be based on the examination of witnesses. If the tie still exists, then knowledge of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1974 (CrPC) will be considered. If the tie still exists, then the time management of the team will be considered.

2.11 The teams are required to send proof of attending the competition (certificates) and proof of permission granted to attend the same for the attendance claims to be considered.

3. AMENDMENTS AND RESIDUARY CLAUSE

3.1 The Advanced Criminal Law Studies Committee reserves the right to modify the rules and regulations stipulated in the Code as and when the need arises. The Code can be amended, altered or corrected to suit the different situations and other unforeseen circumstances that may arise during the course of time, and shall have a retrospective effect. All the changes to the Code will be done only by the Faculty Co-ordinators. Once the amendments have been made, the students shall ensure strict compliance with all the changed provisions of this Code.

3.2 In the occurrence of an event in collaboration with other committees or new committees established for the same, a new memorandum shall be drafted which shall govern the Rules relating to the event. The Code of ACLSC shall not be disturbed or applicable in the light of the same.

3.3 All issues concerning any activity of the ACLSC not covered by the above Rules will be decided by the Faculty Co-ordinators of ACLSC and all disputes (including the interpretation of the above Rules and Provisions) will be decided by the Committee and the faculty's decision shall be final. In case the code is silent about any other matter, the Faculty Co-ordinators in consultation with the HOD and the Director of SLCU will reserve the right to make any decision in the light of such circumstance(s).

3.4 The HOD and the Director of SLCU shall reserve the discretion to take decisions with regard to any point mentioned in this code and/or any other matter incidental thereto. Such decision(s) taken shall be binding and final.

3.5 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, the decision of the HOD, Dean and the Director with regard to any issue pertaining to ACLSC shall be binding on everyone concerned.

4. GRIEVANCES

4.1 Any grievance or grievances of the students may be addressed to the Faculty Co-ordinators of the Advanced Criminal Law Studies Committee. The grievance of the aggrieved may relate to anything within the scope of this code and its implementation. The aggrieved party will be given an opportunity to be heard before the Committee. The final decision regarding the redressal of the grievance or any action to be taken with respect to the grievance will lie with the Faculty Coordinators of the Committee. Any grievance or grievances shall be emailed to the Advanced Criminal Law Studies Committee under the subject title “Grievance”.
